

2006 Sandy City Amphitheater Summer Season

Some of the biggest concert events in Utah are happening right here at the Sandy Amphitheater this summer.

In July, the 2006 Triple Threat Tour invades the Amphitheater with country bands Blackhawk, Little Texas, and Restless Heart. And, in a rare Utah appearance, one of the world's greatest rock bands, Toto, hits the stage in August. Get your tickets early as these are guaranteed sell-outs.

And, if that wasn't enough, '70s crossover band Firefall fires up the house in July with hits including You are the Woman and Just Remember I love you. In July, Righteous Brother Bill Medley performs over 40 years of legendary music, including You've Lost that Lovin' Feeling and (You're My) Soul and Inspirations. With their good looks and great voices, country music duo Blue County also tears up the amphitheater in July.

Flash back to the psychedelic '60s when Gary Lewis and the Playboys pack the house in August. And, Chuck Negron, formerly of Three Dog Night, sets the stage ablaze at the season finale in September with million-selling hits One (is the loneliest number), Old Fashioned Love Song, and Joy to the World.

Local Favorites

With their latest CD "Dream Big" hitting the country charts Ryan Shupe and the RubberBand returns to Sandy for their "big" performance in June.
